FELLOWS' ORIGINAL
WORM LOZENGES.
WE can with confidence point to FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES as the most perfect remedy for those troublesome pests, INTESTINAL WORMS.
After years of careful experiment, success has crowned our efforts, and we now offer to the world a confection without a single fault, being safe, convenient, effectual and pleasant. No injurious result can occur, let them be used in whatever quantity. Not a particle of calomel enters their composition. They may be used without further preparation, and at any time. Children will eagerly devour all you give them, and ask for more. They never fail in expelling Worms from their dwelling-place, and they will always strengthen the weak and emaciated, even when he is not affected with worms.
Various remedies have, from time to time, been recommended, such as calomel, oil of wormseed, turpentine, &c., producing dangerous and sometimes fatal consequences. After much research, study and experiments, embracing several years, the proprietors of FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES have succeeded in producing a remedy, free from all objections, and positively safe, pleasant and effectual. They do not kill the worms, but act by making their dwelling-place disagreeable to them, in order to assure consumers of the genuineness of these Lozenges the analysis of Dr. A. A. HAYES, State Assayer, is annexed:—
"I have analyzed the WORM LOZENGES prepared by Messrs. FELLOWS & Co., and find that they are free from mercury and other metallic or mineral matter. These Lozenges are skilfully compounded, pleasant to the taste, safe, sure and effectual in their action. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M.D., Assayer to the State of Mass."
Price 25 cents per Box; Five for $1.
GEORGE W. SWETT, Proprietor of the New England Botanic Depot, 36 Hanover St., Boston, Mass., Sole Agent for the United States, to whom all orders should be addressed.
B. F. BRADBURY, and J. F. PATTEN & CO., Gen'l Agent, Bangor.

JOHNSON'S Improved Gold Medal
LOCK-STITCH
SEWING MACHINE.
THE original of this machine, which was placed on exhibition with some forty others at the Mechanics' Fair in Boston, in Sept. 1860, was pronounced superior to all others, and received the highest prize, a Gold Medal.
Notwithstanding the favor with which these machines have been received, the inventor has greatly increased its value by adding several improvements, making it now the most simple and reliable sewing machine in the world.
As these machines are the first introduced into this city, it is, of course, this city, who has one of the old Gold Medal Machines, sends us the following testimonial:
Dear Sir—Having used the Old Gold Medal Sewing machine in my family over four years, I am happy to inform you I am pleased with it in every respect. It has never been out of order or occasioned me any trouble since I have had it in my possession, and I can cheerfully recommend it to any one wishing a Good Sewing Machine.
Yours respectfully,
Mrs. A. P. RAYMOND, Summer Street.
Every machine warranted and put up in any variety of styles desired, and fitted to suit purchasers.

Wheeler & Wilson's
LOCK-STITCH
THESE UNEQUALLED MACHINES are adapted to every variety of sewing for family wear, from the lightest muslins to the heaviest cloths. They work equally well upon silk, linen, woolen, and cotton goods, with silk, cotton, or linen thread. They will sew, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind, and perform every species of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, alike on both sides of the article sewed.
The Qualities which recommend the Wheeler & Wilson Machines are:
1. Beauty and excellence of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed.
2. Strength, firmness, and durability of seam, that will not rip nor ravel.
3. Economy of thread.
4. Its attachments and wide range of application to purposes and materials.
5. Compactness and elegance of model and finish.
6. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction.
7. Speed, ease of operation and management, and quietness of movement.

Important to Lumbermen
Owners of Hemlock Lands.
THE AMERICAN PATENTED IMPROVEMENT TANNING COMPANY of New York own the exclusive right in the United States for the manufacture of an imperishable "EXTRACT" from Hemlock Bark for tanning purposes. The Bark Extract is now extensively used among Tanners, and the demand for it is rapidly increasing. It commands a ready sale in the Boston, New York and Philadelphia markets, at sixty cents per gallon. The appliances for manufacturing are simple and not expensive, costing but little more than the ordinary leaches used by Tanners. By this process 1½ cords of bark may be reduced so as to concentrate the entire strength into forty gallons of Extract, without in the slightest degree injuring its tanning qualities, and at a cost not exceeding one dollar per cord. The saving in freight alone, between the transportation of the Extract and the Bark, will range from six to eight dollars per cord, so that any one who may not get but three hundred cords at Bark Leaches, may save from two thousand to twenty-five hundred dollars in the difference in freight.
The Company does not propose to sell Territorial rights, but will grant exclusive privileges to manufacture in certain localities, charging a small royalty per gallon on the amount manufactured.
The Company will send competent men to superintend the construction of works, where parties desire to enter into the business, and to instruct in the manufacture of the Extract.
As a guarantee of success to parties entering into this business, the Company will contract to take all the Extract manufactured under their process at fifty cents per gallon, delivered in Boston or New York.
Parties in Maine desiring further information as to terms, &c., may call upon or address CHARLES HALE, General Agent for Maine, 24 Main street, Bangor, where models of the apparatus may be seen.

Maine Christian Convention.

TO THE PASTORS AND BRETHREN OF THE CHURCHES OF MAINE:

The present is a time of great expectation and hope among many earnest Christians in all the Churches of Christ in Maine, and the question is often asked, What can be done to awaken a deeper interest for Christ in the hearts of His people?

A free interchange of opinions and experiences in regard to the various questions of practical Christian effort, between pastors and brethren of all the churches, is eminently desirable, that all may know and fully consider their duties to others, and how they can do these duties most faithfully and acceptably.

The Work of the Churches—Home Missions—The efforts to spread the Gospel among the poor and neglected—The Sunday School—The efforts for the suppression of Intemperance—Home Evangelism—these questions and the duties of Christians as connected with them are of sufficient importance to call for united prayer and consultation.

To this end the Portland Young Men's Christian Association, after conferring with many pastors and laymen of experience have decided to call a Maine Christian Convention.

We therefore cordially invite the Christian Churches of Maine to send delegates of pastor and one or more laymen to meet in convention with our Association in Portland, on Thursday and Friday, February 7th and 8th, at the Chestnut St. Church.

The Convention will assemble at ten o'clock. No Credentials will be required.

Rev S F Wetherbee, Rev F Southworth,
Rev W L Gage, Rev G A Tewksbury.

☞ Will Pastors receiving this circular read it to their churches and request their co-operation.

The following Railroad Companies have agreed to furnish free return tickets to delegates attending the Convention: P. S. & P., Eastern, Boston and Maine, Portland and Rochester, Portland and Kennebec, Grand Trunk and Maine Central Railroad.

Delegates will purchase regular tickets for Portland, and free returns good for 8th, 9th, and 10th, will be issued by the Secretary of the Convention.

Papers throughout the State are requested to copy.

Our Foreign Correspondence.

ROME, Dec. 18, 1866.

This morning we set off in a carriage for the purpose of ascending the church of St. Peters. We met a party of friends who accompanied us. We all hands went to the roof of the church, and as the atmosphere was very clear, had a magnificent view of the city and surrounding country. We wandered about the roof, looked at the huge statues of our Savior and the twelve apostles on the front, which are of colossal size, and then commenced the ascent to the ball. I—finding her nerves hardly adequate for the undertaking, though the whole distance is by a regular staircase, remained on the roof, while the rest of us, by steady perseverance, with an occasional breathing spell soon found ourselves climbing the last stage which is a perpendicular iron ladder, leading into the ball. Mr. K. W., myself and another gentlemen found ourselves in the ball at the same time. The wind howled terribly while we were thus perched 468 feet in the air, and as none seemed inclined to make a long visit to the upper regions at that time we were soon on our winding way down, this being my second visit to this place. Several ladies of the party also ascended to the ball, but how it could be done without first disrobing, at least in part, I cannot understand.

From here we again took carriage, and visited the Villa Albani, a short distance beyond the Porta Salara. Napoleon carried off from this Villa 294 pieces of sculpture, which were restored at the peace of 1815, and then all sold by the owner, except one piece, to the King of Bavaria. The piece reserved was a beautiful Antinous. Notwithstanding such a great number have been disposed of, an immense quantity still remains. Among the principal are statues of Julius Cæsar, Augustus, Tiberius, Trajan, Marcus Aurelius, and Hadrian. There are also busts of Alexander the Great, Scipio Africanus, Hannibal and Homer. Besides these are great numbers of other works in marble and alabaster and a large number of rooms filled with paintings by Titian, Domenichino, Guidi and other old masters.—The grounds are beautifully laid out, presenting a picture of extreme loveliness. In the spring this place would seem to possess all that could be desired to minister to one's taste and enjoyment.

We then visited the Palazzo Barberini, one of the largest palaces in Rome. A number of pieces of sculpture were found in the gardens of Sallust. The pictures are arranged in these rooms, and here too we see many works of the great masters. One of the most celebrated, and one which interested me most from the sad fate of the subject was Guidi's portrait of Beatrice Cenci, taken the night before her execution. Raphael's Fornarina is also much admired. I purchased at the gallery a large photograph of these two pictures. The latter bears the name of the artist on a bracelet on the arm of the Madonna, it being one of the two pictures to which his name is attached. Having finished this gallery, we were ready to repair to our hotel with good appetites for dinner. Of course it is impossible to retain a distinct remembrance of but a few of the numerous pictures we see, but the impressions made on the memory by those few are deep and will always be retained with joy and satisfaction.

Wednesday, Dec. 19th. This has been a great day for us. After breakfast, accompanied by a good guide, we started for the Baths of Caracalla, the most perfect of all such ruins about Rome, covering an area of 140,000 square yards. They were made in the year 212, and could accommodate 1600 bathers at once. They are now an immense heap of ruins, covered with earth to the depth of 30 feet. Excavations are now being made, and we saw several rooms that had just been brought to the light of day.—Coins, statues, and works of art of the most beautiful character, have been and are being discovered. We saw mosaic floors as perfect as if just laid, frescoes as fresh as if just finished. We rambled about among the ruins, procured a few coins and specimens of different kinds of marble, and then started for the Columbaria. These are excavations some 30 or 40 feet in diameter, circular, and about 20 feet deep beneath the surface. The urns of the dead, whose bodies have been burned, as was customary, are preserved in niches, numbers the same, with a small marble tablet giving the name, age, date, &c. In one we estimated that there were 200 of these niches, all containing the urns and ashes that must have placed in them about 20 centuries ago. Another object we visited was Colosseum, [illegible] Friday.

We must make the Chamber Apartment [illegible]

[illegible] 1c

[illegible] eating them away, and soon a few more centuries the place that has known them will know them no more. What a commentary upon every thing earthly! Change, death and decay are stamped upon man's proudest material works, while the spiritual good and true shall endure while Eternity itself shall last. May God so teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to wisdom—true wisdom.

We stopped on our way back, at the Sanctu Scala, or Holy Staircase, where we saw several inflicting the penalty upon themselves of ascending the stairs on their knees. Poor blind, ignorant creatures, as though the Almighty could be propitiated by such penances.

We went into St. Johns of Lateran church, admired the colossal statues as well as other parts of this truly magnificent edifice, and then home to dinner with full hearts and empty stomachs.

Thursday, December 20, our little party left the hotel at 7 A. M., for an excursion to Ostia, the mouth of the Tiber 15 miles distant. The road for most of the way lies along the river, and nothing remarkable is to be seen until we approach the village. This town formerly contained a population of 80,000, and now there are less than one hundred all told. The ancient town is a heap of ruins, miles in circuit. Excavations have been carried on for several years, and many works of art now in the Vatican were brought from here. The great cause of the decay of the place, formerly the Port of Rome was the destruction of the harbor by the quantities of deposit brought down by the Tiber. After the port became useless, its decay was rapid, and added to the effect of war, soon was totally abandoned. Scipio Africanus embarked here on his expedition against Spain, and Claudius in his against Britain. We saw the interior of many tombs and temples that had been excavated. The mosaic floors in some places were still well preserved. The theatre, a large, circular enclosure, memorable for being the place where many Christians had suffered martyrdom, is almost a total ruin. We passed through one street that had been partially excavated, with the debris of houses and tombs piled up on either side. There are extensive salt works on the marsh about a mile this side, where large quantities are made by evaporation of the sun. We saw three immense piles of this article apparently ready for market.

At the modern town of Ostia is a castle of the middle ages. We went to the top and had a fine view. St Peter's and Rome on one side, and steamers on the Mediterranean on the other. In warm weather fevers are very prevalent. What few persons we saw looked sickly, feeble and filthy. We ate the luncheon we carried with us, in the carriage, started back for Rome at two, and at half past four were again at our Hotel, having had a pleasant ride and a good day's enjoyment.

Friday, December 21. We first visited the Doria Palace, considered one of the finest as it is one of the most extensive in Rome. Here are 800 pictures, many of them by celebrated artists. I will not attempt a description, nor even an enumeration of their names. There were also various works of ancient art of various kinds. This palace was constructed in the 16th century, is situated on the Corso (the Broadway of Rome,) and is celebrated for its fine architectural beauty of design and finish. From this place we rode to the Villa Pamfili Doria, situated just outside the walls of the city in the rear of St. Peter's. The grounds are four miles in circuit, and present a variety of scenery highly ornamental, with fountains and statuary. We rode about the grounds for some time, and then stopped at the Villa, where we saw some paintings, &c. From the top of the Villa we enjoyed a splendid view, not only of the immediate grounds, but of St. Peter's and the surrounding country. (Looking in one direction, we saw the word Mary written by evergreens (arbor vitæ I think,) on a hill sloping towards the Villa. The letters were probably 20 feet long, and formed of trees ten feet high, probably a tribute of respect to some member of the family or friend. Looking into the beautiful flower garden we saw birds made from box, some on the wing and some on twigs of trees. These figures each occupied a space of a couple of rods square. Other fancy figures were interspersed, which gave the whole a singular and beautiful effect.

This place suffered during the revolution of 1849. Many balls from the French guns struck different parts of the premises, and we saw three cannon balls about half in bedded in a wall near the entrance. Garibaldi held the place for some time against the whole French army, but was at last obliged to give way to superior forces and better soldiers than he commanded. As we contemplated quite an excursion to Tivoli to-morrow, we concluded to make this day a work light. Accordingly we closed our operations here.

CALIFORNIA MINERAL SPRING. One of the most remarkable springs in the whole Pacific Coast is that, about fourteen miles this side the summit of one of the highest peaks of the Sierra Nevada. The water is ejected from a single crevice in a rock, and issues therefrom hissing and foaming with a powerful effervescence, like soda from a fountain, but subsides immediately on coming to the air. The water possesses strong mineral qualities, which have not yet been scientifically analyzed. It has a pleasant sub-acid flavor, is highly charged with carbonic acid gas, and with the addition of a little sugar makes a very delightful, sparkling, palatable drink.

AN ACTIVE VOLCANO IN THE MOON. A volcano in the moon is said to be in an active state. The crater called Linne, on the Mare Serenitatis, was noticed by an astronomer at Athens, a M. Schmidt, during the months of October and November, to be obscured.—English photographs taken during the same time, show the crater very faintly marked. The same darkness was observed on this spot by the eminent astronomer, Schroeter, in November, 1788. The London Spectator says: "The impression is that an eruption is going on, but if so, must not the moon have an atmosphere? Could combustion take place without oxygen? Would the smoke—the carbonic and gas—rise without some heavier gas, like atmospheric air, to rise in?—[N. Y. Post.

Statement in Regard to Revenue from National Banks.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.

Fire at Wellsville, Allegheny county, Friday last, destroyed the Free Press office, building, a large number of stores, buildings and other property. Loss $1.5,000; insured $70,000.

The Post says:

The money market is abundantly supplied, rates are rather easier. Call loans 6@7 per cent; exceptions at 5 per cent. Commercial paper passes more freely at 7@9 per cent.

Stocks feverish; Governments better—the former closed with a drooping tendency under the disposition to sell. Foreign Exchange inactive.

Arrived—Steamship City of Paris, from Liverpool 23d ult.

The Post's special Washington despatch says:

The Loan Certificate bill will be adopted by the Senate Finance Committee.

The House Banking Committee has voted down the proposition similar to Mr. Grinnell's against contraction of legal tenders.

Mr. Birney, President of the U. S. Express Company, received a despatch this afternoon confirming the reported Indian outrages on the Kansas Pacific route.

Steamship City of Paris arrived at this port this afternoon, from Havre, with 272 passengers. She reports, Feb. 4th, 880 miles east of Sandy Hook, passed one of the National Company's steamers bound east.

Yesterday, between 12 and 1 o'clock, the office of Leonard W. Jerome, on Wall street, was entered by burglars and robbed of $100, in five-twenty bonds. The detectives have some hopes of securing the guilty parties.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

The Secretary of State today communicated to the Senate, in reply to its resolution, the name of the person who furnished information concerning Mr. Motley.—The Secretary encloses the letter, which is from George W. McCracken of New York, dated Paris Oct. 23.

Gen. Sheridan was at the White House today and had an interview with the President.

The Secretary of the Treasury in a communication to the House says—

The amount paid by the national banks as annual duty prior to July 1st was $1,775,[illegible], and the amount paid as internal revenue to July 31, inclusive, was $1,[illegible]98, making the total amount of accounted receipts $13,689,604. In addition to this an indirect revenue from the use of the banks in the business, which is important; the precise amount cannot yet be ascertained.

Official despatches received at the War Department say there is no truth in the report that fifty men had been killed by the Indians near Fort Wallace.

The Lighthouse Board announce that the Minister of Public Works in France gives notice that from Jan 1st a revolving red light will be exhibited on Cape Corcoune, on the point of the Gulf of Lupose, south coast of France.

Also that two harbor lights will be exhibited at Harborville, France, south coast of France.

Also that a harbor light will be exhibited at the extremity of port St Jusn, Gulf of St Florence, south coast of France.

Also, that a harbor light will be exhibited at Ci, Corsica

In the Criminal Court to-day the case of Richard Conover was called up. Mr. Goodwin, counsel for the prisoner, said that when arguing a demurrer, he had raised the question that the House of Representatives had no right to refer the inquiry as to the conspiracy of Jeff Davis in the conspiracy, to any of its committees, or make the inquiry itself, and he would, for the same reason, object to the introduction of testimony alleged to have been taken. The Court decided to admit the paper and it was read, the defendant's counsel excepting.

The Senate Finance Committee to-day adopted the bill proposed by the leading officers of the country, with the endorsement of the Secretary of the Treasury, for funding compound interest notes.

Great damage has been done by the breaking up the ice in the Potomac.

The Fifth State dinner of the President took place this evening. Cards were issued to a number of members of Congress and their ladies.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 5.

The Working men's Assembly assembled here today. The attendance was considerably large. The noon session was occupied in the examination of credentials of delegates and listening to the address of Mayor Pierce of Albany. The address discussed the eight hour system and recommends a working classes throughout the country to join in petitioning for its establishment by law.

He alludes to the apprentice system as needing reformation, both for the interests of the journeymen and employers, and deprecates the employment of convicts at mechanical branches of industry.

He urges additional legislation to protect the wages of workingmen, and favors exemption from taxation of one thousand dollars income.

In the afternoon the session was occupied in electing officers and reading of communications.

The attendance is larger than at many of the former meetings of the association and comprised delegates from all parts of the State.

Adjourned until to-morrow.

KINGSTON, C. W., Feb. 5.

The Fenian prisoners arrived here last night and were escorted by the Warden to the Penitentiary, on arriving at which they had their hair closely cut. Lynch and McMahon were set at work in the foundry department.

The testing of the Snyder Enfields by the 60th regiment resulted today satisfactorily—only one cartridge in seven hundred failed. Money is still coming from England for the relief fund.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5.

The despatch from Junction City, Kansas, Jan. 31, saying that that place would be the terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad during the present year, gives a wrong impression concerning the actual condition of the road. The road is already completed 250 miles beyond Junction City, and trains are running to that point. The road will be finished to Fort Ellsworth, 50 miles further by the 1st of April.

HOLMES' HOLE, Feb. 5.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.

House.

Mr. Williams presented an act that was referred to the reconstruction committee providing that each of the late confederate States except Tennessee shall constitute a military district, to be subject to military authority of the United States; that the General of the army under authority of the President, shall assign an officer not under the rank of a Brigadier General to command such districts, and provide sufficient military force to enable him to discharge his duties and enforce authority with the district; that it shall be the duty of each officer assigned aforesaid to protect peaceable citizens in their rights of person and property, suppress insurrection, disorder, violence, punish all disturbers of the public peace and criminals; the officers may at their discretion authorize local tribunals to act or organize military tribunals for that purpose. All State and Legislative interference with the military authority to be declared void and of no effect; that courts and judicial officers of the United States may have a limited power to issue writs of habeas corpus, regulate the trial and sentence of prisoners held under military authority in said district.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

Senate.

The usual number of petitions were presented and referred.

Mr. Morrill offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of War to inform the Senate if Gen Sheridan has issued any orders for the protection of trains crossing the plains, and if so, of what nature. Adopted.

Mr. Kirkwood introduced a resolution, instructing the military committee to inquire what legislation was necessary for the relief of discharged soldiers who have lost papers, etc., and report by bill or otherwise. Adopted.

Mr. Trumbull called up the bill providing that acts of Congress for the payment of war claims, shall not be construed to apply to the Rebel States, except loyal citizens of Tennessee, &c.

The exception was extended so as to include loyal citizens of Louisiana and West Virginia.

Other amendments were offered, and the bill passed.

Mr. Fessenden, from the finance committee, reported with verbal amendments the pension appropriation bill.

Mr Wilson introduced a resolution which was agreed to, directing the Secretary of the Treasury to report, what amount of money has been received from the sales of cotton or other property turned over to the Treasury Department, and what disposition has been made of the same, whether any of the money has been paid or refunded to claim agents, and the name of such claimants, etc.

The bankrupt bill, after some debate, was taken up.

Mr. Howard's amendment to strike out the 37th section was rejected.

Mr. Henderson offered an amendment, making the minimum indebtedness for which voluntary bankruptcy may be instituted $1000 instead of $300 agreed to.

The bill was finally taken out of the committee of the whole and reported to the Senate.

Mr. Sumner asked for another vote on striking out the provision that in all proceedings in bankruptcy commenced after one year from the time this act goes into effect, no exchange shall be granted a debtor whose assets do not exceed 50 per centum on the claims against his estate, unless the assent in writing of a majority in number and value of his creditors whose proved claims are filed at or before the time of the application.—Agreed to.

After discussion the vote was taken on the passage of the bill, with the following result—yeas 20, nays 25.

Mr. Harris will enter a motion to reconsider.

Adjourned.

House.

Mr. Windom, from the committee on Indian affairs, made a report on the investigation into the recent letting contracts for Indian goods, which with the minority report was ordered printed.

The report of the committee is to the effect that there is no evidence of fraud in the letting of contracts for Indian goods, and the House should rescind the resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to suspend the execution of them. The minority report is that the awards should be set aside as unjust and unfair.

Gen. Sheridan being present, a recess was taken and the General presented to each member individually, after which business was resumed.

An additional pension of $500, per year was voted to Samuel Downing, one of the last surviving soldiers of the Revolutionary War.

Mr Bingham, from the committee on military affairs, offered a joint resolution directing the Secretary of War to purchase David's Island in Long Island Sound for $88,000. Passed.

The House went into a committee of the whole on the President's message.

Mr. Hooper addressed the House on the financial question.

The House took up the Indian appropriation bill, which was amended, and the committee rose and reported it.

The Speaker presented several executive documents, which were appropriately referred.

Mr Van Aernam presented a petition of certain soldiers of the War of 1812, asking Congress to grant equal pensions to the surviving soldiers of that war, and to the widows of those that have died.

Adjourned.

SUDDEN DEATH. On Saturday afternoon Mr. Benjamin Brown, while in his shop, suddenly fell senseless to the floor and almost instantly expired. A post mortem examination, conducted by Drs. Weeks and several other medical gentlemen, revealed extensive softening of the lower portions of the brain, resulting in apoplexy as the immediate cause of death. Mr. Brown has been long known as a respected and worthy citizen of this city.—[Press.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

THE TREAT'S FALLS DAM PROJECT. Among the principal reasons for opposing the present proposition for the city to aid the erection of a dam at Treats Falls, by money or city credit, the following is stated in the recent report of a committee of the Council:

The gentlemen (Messrs. Weston & Leavitt) decline to fix a price for which they will sell their lands connected with the site where the dam is to be located.

They do not propose to include in the sale of the franchise any lands whatever—not even the shores with which the dam is to be connected.

If this is true, we have certainly misunderstood the offers made by Messrs. Weston & Leavitt. We should oppose any aid whatever being granted by the city, unless the shores and lands necessary to the establishment and improvement of the water-power should first be secured by bond or otherwise, at such prices as the City Council should consider reasonable and proper.—We have always understood that Messrs. Weston & Leavitt were ready to dispose of all their interests to a new company, or to the city, if thought best, at a price not deemed extortionate. If we had not thus understood from conversation with the gentlemen themselves, we should never have said a word in favor of any aid from the city. The petitioners for authority to grant city aid (some six or eight hundred in number, we understand) certainly ask and legislate that this authority, if granted, may be subject to such conditions as the City Council may impose—and one of the first and most rigid of these conditions should undoubtedly be that all shores and lands necessary for the erect on of the dam, and the improvement of the power, shall be secured in such a manner that they may not be held at exorbitant prices by anybody. There is apparently no particular danger that the City Council will be over-reached by Messrs. Weston & Leavitt in the conditions. If any one thinks there is such danger, proper conditions might be embraced in the enabling act of the Legislature.

We have no feeling or interest in this matter whatever, beyond a desire (which every one feels who has the future prosperity of Bangor at heart) that the opportunity for obtaining a great water-power at our doors may be speedily improved. We believe there is no probability that private enterprise will do it—and that in no other way than by city aid can it be done in the generation. We are willing, therefore, to trust our City Council with the management of the conditions upon which the city will aid the enterprise. All we ask the Legislature to do is to put the matter in the hands of the City Government, and a law the citizens to vote the aid upon such conditions as the government may impose. We do not see any other chance to obtain a dam during the present century.

If the Council is not able to prevent Messrs. Weston & Leavitt from overreaching the city, there is less shrewdness and sharpness than we have supposed among those who usually manage our municipal affairs. Let them require, if they see fit, that Messrs. Weston & Leavitt shall sell their entire interest to the city at a price fixed, and have nothing whatever to do with the new company. The city will not then be cheated by them.

OUR CARRIERS. It should be borne in mind that the carriers of the Whig have no papers to sell, or give away, on their routes. Persons who endeavor to get papers from them, are simply inducing them to become dishonest and steal from their employers.—If such cases exist in the future, we shall certainly take measures to bring the parties to justice. Jan9

—In looking over the Navy Register, just published we notice the name of Commander C. H. Cushman (a son of Judge G. G. Cushman of this city), now in command of the Mahaska, on duty of the Gulf squadron.—Commander Cushman has been in the service eighteen years (having entered in March, 1849), thirteen of which were passed at sea. He served with distinction in the late war, receiving especial praise for his conduct at the storming of Fort Fisher, and his whole naval record is one of which his friends have a right to feel proud.—[Times.

PENOBSCOT BRIDGE. In an August letter yesterday the tolls on this bridge are stated at about $9000 a year. It should be also stated that the annual expenses are about $3000—so that the net receipts are but about $6000. The tolls for the past ten years have averaged about $8400—the dividends between $18 and $19 per share of $200 par value.

—We have examined some handsome architectural plans drawn by Mr. Fred. E. Coombs, Exchange Block for some new brick stores to be erected on Main street next spring by Mr. Stephen Cony. The plans are well devised, and the stores (a block of two) will make a handsome addition to the street.

—In City Council on Monday last, Geo. K. Jewett, Esq., was elected Director of the Maine Central Railroad for the city of Bangor.

HOULTON, Feb. 1, 1867.

Editor of Daily Whig:

A beautiful house of worship, erected by the Baptist denomination in this place, was dedicated to the service of God, by appropriate exercises, yesterday, 31st January.

The sermon was preached by Rev. C. G. Porter of Bangor; the dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. H. C. Spaulding of Houlton, and other parts of the service were performed by Rev. L. Mayo of Hodgdon and Rev. Mr. Blakeney of Woodstock, N. B. The singing was excellent.

The house, which cost about $5000, is neat, tasteful, and well arranged; an ornament to the growing village, and a monument to the sacrifices and persistent effort of the Baptists here, and the generosity of their friends in Houlton and in other places, especially in Bangor.

Mr. Porter is expected to supply the pulpit for a few Sabbaths. *

—The following Deputy Sheriffs have been appointed in Oxford county, as we learn from the Oxford Democrat:—Dan'l D. Ridlon, Porter; Benj. Hartford, Lovell; Jacob Thompson, Hiram; Charles H. George, Hebron; Isaac G. Virgin, Canton; Thomas R. Day, Woodstock.

BOSTON, Dec. 6, 1866.

Messrs. Speery & Washburn,

General Agents, Hartford Live Stock Insurance Co., 96 Washington street, Boston.

Gentlemen:—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your check for FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, being in payment for LOSS BY DEATH of my mare, Lady Mace. Said mare was insured in the HARTFORD LIVE STOCK INSURANCE CO. (in connection with my other stock), through your Agency on the 26th day of November, and on the 8th day of December following she accidentally received a kick from another horse, breaking her left fore leg above the knee, rendering it necessary to kill her, as an act of humanity.

Your PROMPT PAYMENT of the loss, without any discount, the day after her death, only confirms my previous confidence in the Company, and I cheerfully recommend all OWNERS OF LIVE STOCK to INSURE THEREIN, as my experience convinces me that it is just the thing wanted to protect them from loss by death from either accident or disease. Very truly yours,

DR. L. CHASE,

DOCTOR,

HAVING purchased the residence of H. A. Wood, 54 Hammond Street, Bangor, Maine, would be happy to be consulted by all who are afflicted with Cancers, Cancer Humors, Tumors, Scrofula, Leprosy, Salt Rheum, Fits, Neuralgia, Bronchial Affections, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Sick Headache, Liver Diseases, Female Weaknesses, Piles, Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Diseases of the Kidneys, Stiff Joints, Gravel Diseases, &c., &c.

DR. CHASE has practiced in his profession for sixteen years, and in that time has spent two years in Florida and Cuba, for the purpose of gaining a correct knowledge of the most efficient remedies used by the various tribes of Indians of that country, and by great expense has gained many valuable secrets which have heretofore been unknown to the world.

In Cancer he claims superiority over all other Physicians of the age, for he never fails to perform a cure when taken in a proper stage.

His mode of curing Cancers is by the application of a plaster, which is strictly vegetable, and will have no effect upon the healthy flesh; and in no case uses a knife, as does Dr. Gibson, of Boston.

He also boldly asserts that he can tell every individual their disease and location of their pains, and describe their feelings in almost every case, more minutely than they can possibly themselves.

Dr. Chase is not a Clairvoyant, but conducts his examinations on a strictly scientific principle, and will challenge any professed medium for a test examination.

THE LOVED NOT LOST.

How strange it seems with so much gone
Of life and love, to still live on!
Ah, weather, only I and the
Are left of all that circle now,—
The children's hour, the festal board,
That Death's footsteps passed and spoke.
Heaven's will be done, as we will,
The voices of that hearth are still.
Look where we may, the wide earth o'er
Those lighted faces smile no more.
We meet not at the evening board;
We sit beneath their orchard trees,
We hear them like the hum of bees
And rustle of the blades of corn;
We have the words that they read,
The written words we linger o'er,
But in place of them that met in shade,
No voices are heard, no fire is made.
No step is on the echoless floor!
Yet love will dream, and faith will trust
(Since he who knows our need is just)
That somewhere, somewhere meet we must.
Alas for him who never sees
The stars shine through his cypress trees!
Who, hopeless, lays in dead away
Some loved one in the breaking day
Across the mournful marbles play!
Who hath not learned in hours of faith,
The truth to flesh and sense unknown,
That Life is ever Love and Death,
And Love can never lose one its own!

J. G. WHITTIER.

Authentic "Injun" History—Pocahontas and Captain John Smith.

The "Fat Contributor" of the Cincinnati Times gives the following true version of this historic incident:

The celebrated Captain John Smith, the paving of whose life by Pocahontas is a historic event of the little incident—especially to Smith at that time—was the earliest settler of Virginia (Grant being the latest settler they have had in that State,) and stands at the head of the Smith family in this country. We are informed that there is a John Smith living in one of the Western States, but he couldn't be the same man that settled Virginia, because he would have been too young at that time (1607) to settle anything. He couldn't have settled for his board even. Captain Smith founded Jamestown, which was totally un-founded (like many of the anecdotes about him) up to that period. Besides giving Jamestown a start he started a number of Indian villages, so that they never came back again. It is said that he could start a village of that description quicker than any white man living at that time. He started so many that the red man hearing of it through the daily papers (the Indians were well red in those days) determined to check his enterprise.

Smith speculated a good deal in corn, purchasing it in the interior and shipping it to Jamestown, which was the great grain center at that time, Chicago not having yet been discovered. In one of his trips in search of corn, he trespassed upon the dominions of King Powhatan, a powerful chief, who, from his entrenchments on the James had long threatened Washington Smith, being somewhat overloaded with corn, fell into an ambuscade, and was captured by Powhatan's savages and taken before their chief. After a brief hearing, in which no witnesses were examined for the defence, (Smith demanded a jury trial, but was refused,) he was condemned to die. He was asked if he had anything to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon him. He said, nothing in particular, only his death would seriously interfere with the settlement of Virginia, and might retard her readmission into the Union. This had no effect whatever, and he was marched to the place of execution. There was a bowlder on which to place his head, while a savage painted in the most hideous manner, was swinging a stuffed club, and uttering diabolical cries, implacent to mask him.

John gazed upon the preparations undismayed, for he belonged to one of the first families of Virginia, (the second families had not arrived from England yet,) and he didn't scare worth a continental. Powhatan, with a generosity that one would hardly look for in a savage, asked him if there was any message he would like to send to his family, and even offered to take charge of any little memento he desired to leave for them. He immediately bethought him of an 'Accident Insurance' policy, which, would expire about the same time he died and a ticket in a Gift Enterprise, (on y 30,000 unsold,) both of which he desired to have sent to his betrothed. Powhatan promised to send them by the next steamer. Capt. Smith then walked firmly to the block without the aid of crutches, placed his head upon it, and bade the master proceed to mash! At this moment the forest rang with a scream and a beautiful Indian maiden darted into the midst of the throng.

Raising her parasol to protect the head of Smith from the impending club, she exclaimed—

Hold! Red man, stay thy hand! (She couldn't stay it herself, because she didn't wear any stays.) Slay him, and Virginia remains a howling wilderness. (Prolonged howls from the savages.) Spare him and ratify the Constitutional Amendment, and Virginia resumes her place in the Union.

Some reconstructed Secesh savages shouted, 'Never!' and rushed on Smith with their carving knives, but Powhatan interfered.

'Spare his life,' said he, 'the Great Spirit wills it. (This put Smith in great spirits at once.) I commute his sentence to the obloquy of founding the first families of Virginia. (Smith git up and git!)

And Smith got.

He lived to found the first families of Virginia, a race that is mostly run out—of the State of Virginia. Pocahontas went across the water as a Commissioner to the Paris Exposition, and Powhatan ran an Injun Exhibition for years after with great success.

An Extraordinary Sleeper.

Sam Chilton, an inhabitant of Tinsbury, near Bath, [England] was a laborer of robust habit of body, though not corpulent, and had reached the twenty-fifth year of his age. When apparently in perfect health, he fell into a profound sleep on the 12th of May, 1694, and every method which was tried to rouse him proved unsuccessful. His mother ascribed his conduct to sullenness of temper, and dreading that he would die of hunger, placed within his reach bread and cheese and small beer; and though no person ever saw him eat or drink during a whole month, yet the food set before him was daily consumed. At the end of a month he rose of his own accord, put on his clothes, and resumed his usual labor in the field. After the lapse of nearly two years, namely, on the 6th of April, 1696, he was again overtaken with excessive sleep. He was now bled, blistered, cupped, and scarified, and the most irritating medicines applied externally, but they were unable to rouse or even irritate him, and during a whole fortnight, he was never seen to open his eyes. He ate, however, as before, of the food that was placed near him, and performed the other functions which were required; but no person ever saw any of these acts, though he was sometimes found fast asleep with his mouthfull of food. In this condition he lay ten weeks. A singular change in his constitution now took place. He lost entirely the power of eating; his jaws were set, and his teeth so closely clenched, that every attempt to force open his mouth with instruments failed. Having accidentally observed an opening in his teeth, made by the action of the tobacco pipe, and usual with most great smokers, they succeeded in pouring some tent wine into his throat through a quill. During forty-six days, he subsisted on about three pints or two quarts of tent. At the end of seventeen weeks, viz., about the 7th of August, he awoke, dressed himself and walked about the room, being perfectly unconscious of having slept more than one night. Nothing, indeed, could make him believe he had slept so long, till upon going to the fields he saw crops of barley and oats nearly fit for the sickle, which he recollected were only sown when he retired to rest.

Dr. William Oliver, to whom we owe the preservation of these remarkable facts, proposed to bal at Bath, and bleeding at the temples or some persons on the first day of August, to prevent a fever, the 6th of August he bled, and the next day he was found in a state of lethargy, from which he could not be roused. He died on the 8th, and on opening his body, the brain was found to be in a state of inflammation.

THE SINGER'S NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.
THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either FAMILY USE or MANUFACTURING PURPOSES, are now established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellencies is no longer considered necessary.
THE LETTER "A" FAMILY MACHINE,
hitherto manufactured by this Company, has gained and maintained the world over, and for years past, at unparalleled reputation and sale. But notwithstanding the excellence of this Machine, we have now to announce that it has been superseded by our
which has been over two years in preparation, and which has been brought to perfection regardless of TIME, LABOR or EXPENSE, and is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the BEST SEWING MACHINE IN EXISTENCE.
The machine in question is SIMPLE, COMPACT, DURABLE and BEAUTIFUL. It is QUIET, LIGHT RUNNING, and CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK never before attempted upon a single machine—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the heaviest and lightest materials, and any thing between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for hemming, braiding, cording, tucking, quilting, felling, trimming, binding, etc., are novel and practical, and have been thoroughly tested and adjusted especially for this machine.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.
Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips. A teaspoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

Have long since given up the use of buchu, cubebs and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.
CONSTITUTION WATER
Has proved itself equal to the task that has devolved upon it.
DIURETICS
irritate and drench the kidneys, and by constant use soon lead to chronic degeneration and confirmed disease.
We present the Constitution Water to the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful in curing; and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.
STROUDSBURG, PA., Jan 20, 1866.
DR. BERGG:
Dear Sir:—I wish to inform you that I have been under the treatment of some of our best physician for nearly two years, without receiving any benefit. I had lost all confidence, and I indulged in but little hope of a cure from any source. My disease was Dropsy, and my physicians told me that there was no cure for me. I was tapped some fifty times, and at the different operations about 1200 pounds of water was removed.
I am happy to inform you that I have been completely restored to health by the use of Constitution Water.
I make this statement hoping it may reach those persons who may be similarly afflicted.
Respectfully,
MRS. MARGILL C. LEVANWAY.
IN DYSMENORRHŒA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE FLOWING.
Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstrual fluid—in one case being too little and accompanied by severe pain, and the other a too profuse secretion, which will be specially cured by the Constitution Water.
This disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides and at times accompanied by sharp, lancinating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases be removed by the medicine.
There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call Nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease, or the disease the symptoms. We can only enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Impaired Memory, Wakefulness, Flashes of Heat Languor, Lassitude, and Dimness of Vision.

DANVILLE, Pa., June, 1862.—Dr. William H. Gregg—Dear Sir:—In February, 1861, I was afflicted with sugar diabetes, and for five months I passed more than two gallons of water in twenty-four hours. I was obliged to get up as often as ten or twelve times during the night and in five months I lost about fifty pounds in weight. During the month of July, 1861, I procured two bottles of Constitution Water, and in two days after using it I experienced relief, and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured from after regaining my usual good health.
Yours truly, J. V. L. DEWITT.
BOSTON CORNER, N. Y., Dec. 27, 1861.—Wm. H. Gregg & Co.—Gents:—I freely give you liberty to make use of the following certificate of the value of the Constitution Water, which I can recommend in the highest manner:—My wife was attacked with pain in the shoulders, whole length of the back, and in her limbs, with palpitation of the heart and irritation of the bladder. I called a physician, who attended her about three months, when he left her worse than he found her. I then employed one of the best physicians I could find, who attended her for about nine months, and while she was under his care she did not sufferquite as much pain. He finally gave her up, and said "her case was incurable. Fore" said he, "she has such a combination of complaints that medicine given for one operates against some other of her difficulties." About this time she commenced to use the Constitution Water and to our utter astonishment, almost the first dose seemed to have the desired effect, and she kept on improving rapidly under its treatment, and now superintends entirely her domestic affairs. She has not taken any of the Constitution Water for about four weeks, and we are happy to say that it has produced a permanent cure.
WM. M. VAN BEUSCHOTEN.
WEATHERSFIELD, Conn., March 2, 1863.—Dr. W. H. Gregg—Dear Sir:—Having seen your advertisement of "Constitution Water," recommended for Inflammation of the Kidneys, and Irritation of the Bladder, having suffered for the past three years, and tried the skill of a number of physicians with only temporary relief, I was induced to try your medicine. I procured one bottle of your agents at Hartford, Messrs. Lee, Simon & Co., and when I had used half of it, to my surprise, I found a great change in my health. I have used two bottles of it, and am where I never expected to be in my life, well, and in good spirits. I cannot express my gratitude for it; I feel that it is all and more than you recommended it to be. May the blessing of God ever attend you in you labors of love.
Yours truly, LEONARD S. BIGLOW.

NEW HOTEL IN DEXTER.
"MERCHANTS EXCHANGE."
We have this day opened a new and elegant Public House in Dexter. This Hotel is a large, new, three-story building, situated in the most central part of the village, is just completed at great expense, thoroughly finished with all the modern improvements, has 35 rooms all furnished with new and choice furniture, some of them suits of rooms to accommodate families. There is a livery Stable attached, where excellent teams can be had at all times. We intend to spare no pains to please the public and to make the "Merchant's Exchange" a first class house in every respect, and respectfully solicit public patronage.
